SkyWay™ VSAT

Nowhere is out of reach

Maxis VSAT Services. Flexible solutions to connect your business anywhere.

With the globalisation of our economy, making the right business decisions in a timely fashion based on accurate information is increasingly vital to sustain business. As such, the necessity for a reliable communications infrastructure to support businesses across all industries has become a common business practice.

Maxis SkyWay™ VSAT Services is a satellite-based multi-service platform that offers businesses highly flexible and reliable communications solutions, in both urban and rural areas. VSATs will change the way you do business, as geographical barriers are eliminated and remote or distant businesses and communities are brought even closer.

You no longer need to be dependent on terrestrial infrastructure as you now have the freedom and flexibility to establish your own private communications network, independent of any public telecommunications infrastructure.
