From
YB DATO SRI WONG SOON KOH
Minister of Finance (II) and Minister of Urban Development and Tourism

*H*earliest congratulations to Outgoing President Augustine Wong and his able board of directors for having led the Rotary Club of Kuching Central towards 'Service Above Self' that resulted in many admired and noble achievements during the past one year.

Your club's involvement in community related projects beyond your home ground such as building of library in Huay Chompoo Village (Thailand), constructions of boats for 12 fishermen in Aceh and donation of funds for the earthquake victims in Yogyakarta (Indonesia) are fine examples of the highest dedications that each member of the club possesses. I am sure in the process of implementing these projects, much exposure and new learning experiences are gained as well as the establishments of international network of friends.

I am also happy to note that the World Health Organisation (WHO) has continued to work with Rotary International on a global basis for the eradication of Polio from the face of this earth. With two new anti-Polio vaccines available targeting type 1 Polio, the most difficult to control, it is the Rotarians who are key to getting this vaccine in kids. No vaccine works unless it's in a child. Rotarians in endemic countries are the front line. Because of Rotary, 99 percent of Polio eradication works have been achieved todate.

With much confidence, I am sure Incoming President Chai Ko Jee and his able team of board of directors will continue to bring the club to greater heights of achievements based on the strong foundations that have been laid by Outgoing President Augustine Wong and previous past presidents.

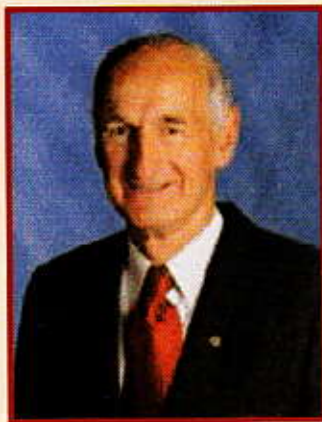

The Sarawak government will continue to support the existence of organisations like Rotary because we can 'Lead the Way' in developing a close working partnership to alleviate the sufferings of the needy community.

From
W. B. (BILL) BOYD
President 2006-2007

It is my pleasure to congratulate you on your 2006-07 year as the club president of the Rotary Club of Kuching Central. As you look forward to your year as a club president, I ask you to focus on three things to strengthen your club. I ask you to make sure there is strong and effective club administration, the cost of membership gives good value, and that your club runs a variety of productive local and international service projects.

Building strong clubs will allow Rotary to continue to Lead the Way in showing the world how challenges, needs and intolerance can be overcome through good sense and goodwill.

When nobody remembers anymore who the club officers were in 2006, the impact of the work you do will still be felt – if you do it well. If your club is stronger and more active, and if your community is a better place, that is what will be remembered.

I ask you to lead your club in the Rotary way, by living as a role model of tolerance, unselfishness, and integrity. Please join me this year and Lead the Way to a better future through Rotary.

Kind regards,

W. B. (Bill) Boyd

FROM
DR WU DAR CHING
District Governor, 2006-2007
Rotary International District 3310

Congratulations to in-coming President Chai Ko Jee and his team of leaders.

In Rotary, the leadership team changes every year. Like the red blood cells in our bodies that are replaced every hundred and twenty days, each year's leadership team will come with new vigor and enthusiasm bringing with them new plans and programs for the coming year. This keeps Rotary active and dynamic.

With the leadership change, the roles of Rotarians will also change. The retiring leadership team does not fade away.

Instead, the spirit of volunteerism and the passion and love for Rotary must continue and grow in every Rotarian. No member in Rotary is ever any more important than another member.

Some of us may have greater responsibility but no one has greater value. Each member will have a part in Rotary - a global network of business and professional leaders dedicated to high ethical values and committed to service to the community.

I urge all Rotarians of the Rotary Club of Kuching Central to support your new President and his team with your continuing encouragement, participation and service. Together, all of us will "Lead the Way" to live out Rotary and better the lives of the community.

Yours in Rotary

Dr Wu Dar Ching

FROM
CHAI KO JEE
President 2006-2007

It is my greatest honour to be elected as the 21st President of The Rotary Club of Kuching Central, a dynamic club with great enthusiasm and with new plans and programs.

First and foremost, on behalf of my club, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to YB Dato Sri Wong Soon Koh to be our unfailing Guest of Honour for this 21st installation despite his busy schedules.

Our Rotary International President, Bill Boyd in his presidential Message 2006-2007, under the theme of "Lead the Way" urged all Rotarians world wide to exercise and practise the spirit of volunteerism and with passion and love for Rotary. He said that such enthusiasm in voluntary service, passion and love for mankind and our environment must continue and grow in each and every Rotarian. Each of us, regardless of our race, religion and creed has a part to play in Rotary, with the will to work hard and ability to practise "Service Above Self". With such attitude and philosophy each of us can make a real difference in our own club, communities and the world at large.

As such, we shall continue to carry out humanitarian services with high ethical standards and values to promote world understanding and peace with the support of my club members, our community and the government.

Finally, to my fellow members, Board of Directors, Rotaractors and Interactors, let us lead the way in working closely together with each other to serve the community with Rotary enthusiasm, passion and love for mankind and the environment.

Yours in Rotary

Chai Ko Jee

FROM
AUGUSTINE C.H. WONG
Outgoing President 2005-2006

It was only like yesterday when I was installed as the 20th President of this dynamic club, the Rotary Club of Kuching Central.

As I look back, the past one year has been most fulfilling with many instances of exciting and rewarding moments that I will treasure & cherish for the rest of my life. It has been a year of great pride and deep sense of satisfactions.

Many projects were implemented and completed as planned. Much planning and thoughts were put into these projects by the directors and their respective committee members from each avenue of service. The underlying purposes of all our projects are to help the less fortunate members of the society and to reach out to them in times of need. Rotary is an organization comprising of business and professional people who are devoted to providing humanitarian services, encourage high ethical standards in all vocations and promote peace and goodwill in the world. This wonderful organization has diverse pools of people with various expertise.

These achievements are made possible with the hard work, unselfish contributions and co-operations given by the board of directors. They have truly uphold the Rotary Theme for 2005-2006 'Service Above Self'.

I especially would like to express my sincere gratitude to SPP Abel Chieng Lee Ching for being my advisor. His unselfishness and dedicated involvements for being with me throughout my terms of office is indeed a role model to many and particularly myself.

My dearest wife, Constance Poh, has also played an active role. She has been supportive and understanding for seeing me through my terms of office. Her constant passion for getting all the Rotary spouses to be involved in all the club's projects are a testimony to putting Rotary Family an active ingredient in our club.

On behalf of the club, I wish to thank YB Dato Sri Wong Soon Koh for gracing this auspicious occasion as our Guest of Honor. Our deepest gratitude to YB Dato Sri also for his valuable contributions and continued supports to Rotary organization all these years. Your presence tonight has further inspired us to be more committed to this great organization, Rotary.

Finally, I wish Incoming President Chai Ko Jee and his new Board of Directors a successful and fruitful year ahead to "Lead The Way" to greater heights of achievements.

Yours in Rotary

Augustine C.H. Wong

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First:

The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service.

Second:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

Third:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life.

Fourth:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARY HISTORY

A Brief History

The world's first service club, the Rotary Club of Chicago, Illinois, USA, was formed on 23 February 1905 by Paul P. Harris, an attorney who wished to recapture in a professional club the same friendly spirit he had felt in the small towns of his youth. The name "Rotary" derived from the early practice of rotating meetings among members' offices.

Rotary's popularity spread throughout the United States in the decade that followed; clubs were chartered from San Francisco to New York. By 1921, Rotary clubs had been formed on six continents, and the organization adopted the name Rotary International a year later.

As Rotary grew, its mission expanded beyond serving the professional and social interests of club members. Rotarians began pooling their resources and contributing their talents to help serve communities in need. The organization's dedication to this ideal is best expressed in its principal motto: Service Above Self. Rotary also later embraced a code of ethics, called The 4-Way Test, that has been translated into hundreds of languages.

During and after World War II, Rotarians became increasingly involved in promoting international understanding. A Rotary conference held in London in 1942 planted the seeds for the development of the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), and numerous Rotarians have served as consultants to the United Nations.

An endowment fund, set up by Rotarians in 1917 "for doing good in the world," became a not-for-profit corporation known as The Rotary Foundation in 1928. Upon the death of Paul Harris in 1947, an outpouring of Rotarian donations made in his honor, totaling US$2 million, launched the Foundation's first program — graduate fellowships, now called Ambassadorial Scholarships. Today, contributions to The Rotary Foundation total more than US$80 million annually and support a wide range of humanitarian grants and educational programs that enable Rotarians to bring hope and promote international understanding throughout the world.

In 1985, Rotary made a historic commitment to immunize all of the world's children against polio. Working in partnership with nongovernmental organizations and national governments through its PolioPlus program, Rotary is the largest private-sector contributor to the global polio eradication campaign. Rotarians have mobilized hundreds of thousands of PolioPlus volunteers and have immunized more than one billion children worldwide. By the 2005 target date for certification of a polio-free world, Rotary will have contributed half a billion dollars to the cause.

As it approached the dawn of the 21st century, Rotary worked to meet the changing needs of society, expanding its service effort to address such pressing issues as environmental degradation, illiteracy, world hunger, and children at risk. The organization admitted women for the first time (worldwide) in 1989 and claims more than 90,000 women in its ranks today. Following the collapse of the Berlin Wall and the dissolution of the Soviet Union, Rotary clubs were formed or re-established throughout Central and Eastern Europe. Today, 1.2 million Rotarians belong to some 31,000 Rotary clubs in more than 166 countries.

LITERACY PROJECT FOR RESETTLEMENT COMMUNITY

The reasons why these areas have been included in this project is because a preliminary study by SAWF found that there is still a high incidence of illiteracy in these 4 communities. An estimated population of 1,500 people and of these 40% are illiterate and semi-literate.

Project Implementation

There will be 1 co-ordinator and 4 volunteers who will be involved in this project. The co-ordinator will work with the communities to organize the trainings. There will be a taskforce who oversees the progress of the project.

Four vision meetings will be held in the 4 communities whose purpose is to introduce the project and as well as to identify 20 volunteers to act as facilitators. The facilitators will be given a 5-day training. The total project is estimated to last 6 months over 3 phases.

The Rotary Club of Kuching Central is undertaking a literacy project for several resettlement communities in Kuching. The project is jointly undertaken with Society for the Advancement of Women and the Family, Sarawak (SAWF). The project will be launched today by Rotary International District 3310 Governor Tay Kim Ann during his official visit to Rotary Clubs in Kuching and to be witnessed by President Augustine Wong of the Rotary Club of Kuching Central, Mrs. Maria Peter (Trainer & Co-ordinator from SAWF) and Mrs. Grete Fozdar (co-ordinator from SAWF).

Launching of Literacy Project witnessed by DG.

Address by DG on Literacy Project.

Background of the Project

Literacy goes beyond the mechanics of reading and writing and should endow the participants with a desire to draw upon the power of expression for inner personal transformation. Mothers are often the first educators of the next generation. However, often girls are given a few years of education and then taken out of school if they are needed at home to look after the younger siblings or to work on the farm.

It is regrettable that youth, especially girls aged 10-16 are among those taken from school to help at home and thus are allowed to lapse into illiteracy.

Medium & Short Term Objectives

1. To assist illiterate or semi-illiterate women especially young women to acquire the basic mechanism of reading and writing so that they can draw on the power of expression.
2. To empower women through acquiring learning skills, reading, writing and arithmetic so that they can develop their full potential.
3. To effect personal transformation so that women can assume responsibility in finding solutions to personal and social problems and attain full partnership in the development of their families and community.

Target Communities:

1. Desa Wira "C resettlement area
2. Sinar Budi "C resettlement area
3. Stapok, Batu Kawa "C resettlement area
4. Kpg. Kudei "C squatters area

LITERACY PROJECT IN NORTHERN THAILAND

Location: Huay Chompoo Village, Muang District, Chiang Rai, Thailand
 The Village is situated on top of Maesuy Mountain, 33km west of Chiang Rai, 785km north of Bangkok and 180km north-east of Chiang Mai.

Purpose: The purpose of this project is to purchase commodities to repair and equip Huay Chompoo (HC) Village library, train HC Village teachers to teach students and villagers to use the library resources and provide two 5-day residential "Active English Camps" for 60 underprivileged school children from Rotary District 3360.

Details: Purchase repair materials and equip the library with a variety of books, magazines, and audio visual and computer materials current and appropriate for the educational and reading levels of students and villagers. These resources need to be supported with library furniture.

Train HC teachers to promote lifelong learning among students and villagers by designing activities which encourages reading, using the library materials and creating a library search tool facilitating students and villagers using the book collection.

Provide two consecutive, 5-days residential "Active English Camps" for underprivileged children and 4 observation teachers in Rotary District 3360. The Camp's curriculum is designed by a specialized TEFL (Teaching English as a Foreign Language) training organization using "active learning" methods to deliver an integrated skills approach to English for communication. The Camp will be conducted by qualified TEFL instructors supported by experienced camp counsellors.

Benefits: i) Basic Literacy – Due to Huay Chompoo Village's isolated location on a remote mountain in northern Thailand; the community has suffered neglect from the state-run education system. Through initial efforts within the scope of our Rotary Centennial Community project, villagers have received assistance to build a library (Among other buildings and services). The Huay Chompoo Village library will service 345 local students and 4 other schools in the area will approximately the same number of students. The library will be also used by public health personal and 23,456 villagers. This project will follow-up and broaden Rotary's commitment to this village by specifically aiming to raise basic literacy rates and attitudes through the establishment of a fully-functional library staffed by trained teaching personnel. Rotarian Kornkamon Ramabutra of Rotary Club – Chiang Mai Thin Thai Ngam (Deputy Director of Chiang Mai University Library) and Rotary Volunteer Arunrat Wongchaya (Librarian of the Chiang Mai University Demonstration School) will set up a training program for teachers who will take charge of the library and its activities. The teachers will come to Chiang Mai University and other school libraries for training and familiarization in librarian skills. Once trained, the teachers will return to “Huay Chompoo Village” school to manage the library functions, and will be assisted to acquire recommended books, magazines, newspapers and all related necessities.

ii) English Literacy – Recognizing English as an essential tool for development of human resources, there is an intense and urgent need within communities in Rotary District 3360 to promote children's long-term interest in, and practical usage of, the language. Although English is taught in Thailand's schools, those efforts suffer from outdated techniques, ill-trained instructors, and inadequate contact hours. A series of two consecutive, 5-day “Active English Camps” would bring together groups of up to 60 children and 4 observation teachers from Rotary District 3360 for intensive coaching in English for communication. The Camp will show children how to use English in real-life situations through a combination of modern teaching techniques delivered by native-speaking instructors as well as field-trips for observation and practice. All campers will have extended opportunities for fellowship and language practice since board and lodging would be provided for the duration. The learning experience will be supplemented by extra materials, field-trips/excursions, and E (Emotional) and Q (Intelligence)-development exercises. Experienced Camp counsellors will take care of the children throughout the Camp.

Participants: Primary host – Rotary Club of Chiang Mai Thin Thai Ngam, District 3360, Thailand
 International host – Rotary Club of West Raleigh, District 7710, USA
 Co-sponsor – Rotary Club of Kuching Central, District 3310, Malaysia
 Other organisations – Chiang Mai University Library
 Co-ordinator – PP Rtn Dr. Busabong Jamroendararasame,
 Professor at Pharmacology Department, Chiang Mai University

The Host: The Host will coordinate the efforts of Rotarians and other parties, such as librarians and educational professionals, trainers and counselors. The Host will further oversee issues dealing with vendors, suppliers and logistics to ensure smooth progress in this project. International partners will work together with the Host on technical and financial issues by providing input or expert knowledge, including regular visits to the project site for progress assessment and consultation.
