Message

From

YB DATO SRI WONG SOON KOH
Minister of Finance (II) and Minister of Urban Development and Tourism

Every 1st July, a new President and board of directors will take over the management of Rotary clubs worldwide. It is therefore no different to the Rotary Club of Kuching Central.

I have officiated a number of events and installations dinner of this club over the years. Therefore I am familiar with the good progress and track record that this club has achieved since its inception.

The strength of the club depends on the active participation of each of your member which is driven by the continuous desire and thirst to help the less fortunate members of the community without expecting anything in return. It is the deep sense of satisfaction derived from helping those in need especially when you do not even know who the beneficiaries of your kind assistance are.

The Rotary Club of Kuching Central has contributed significantly to the communities within and outside Sarawak to as far a place as Banda Aceh in Northern Sumatera, Indonesia during the Tsunami catastrophe.

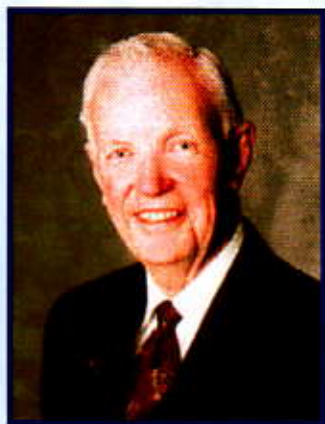

I am sure the planned free cataract eye operation in the rural areas that the club will be undertaking will further inspire the members and the community to look beyond oneself.

You must continue to lend a helping hand by sharing your happiness with those who are not as fortunate as you are.

Last but not least, I wish Incoming President Leslie Phuan and his board of directors a successful and most fulfilling Rotary year.

Dato Sri Wong Soon Koh

Message

From
WILFRID J. WILKINSON
President 2007-2008

*I*t is my pleasure to congratulate you on your installation as the new president of the Rotary Club of Kuching Central for 2007-08.

You have chosen to serve your club in this capacity because, like me, you love Rotary and want to see Rotary grow and thrive. We love Rotary because it is an amazing organisation full of people who want to reduce suffering in this world through fellowship and service. Rotary Shares the things that should be shared with humanity: kindness, time and resources.

We must share Rotary if we want it to survive. Without new members, Rotary will disappear in only a few decades; and without Rotary, so many needs in our communities will go unmet. This is why I am asking everyone who loves Rotary to share that love and commitment by inviting other qualified women and men to join a Rotary club. This is the single most important thing you can do to ensure Rotary's second century of service.

As you perform your duties throughout the year, remember that service is at the heart of Rotary. It is through service that Rotary Shares its tools and resources with those need help in communities all over the world. Service is the true magic of Rotary.

Please join me this year and share Rotary by bringing new members into the fellowship of Rotary and putting Service Above Self in everything you do.

Sincerely,

Wilfrid J. Wilkinson

From
CHRIS CHEN
Governor 2007-2008
Rotary International District 3310

I t is with great pleasure that I write this message for your Installation Dinner especially for a club which is a sister club to my club, the Rotary Club of Queenstown Singapore.

Over the 102 years of its existence, Rotary has expanded across the globe and its activities multiplied manifold. But its core values of friendship, fellowship, and service above self have remained constant. Thus this coming year the 2007-08 Rotary International Theme is ROTARY SHARES. ROTARY SHARES is what Rotarians have been doing all the time. Rotarians all over the globe share their talents, efforts, resources, time, and love with their fellowmen to make their communities and the world a better place. ROTARY SHARES is a call to action and a daily reminder to Rotarians to share to make a difference to another person's life.

Your club is a key member of this international organization and your members are business and community leaders. Thus you have the privilege and duty to share your expertise and concerns, your efforts and resources, and especially your time and commitment, to be of service to your community. By being actively involved in sharing Rotary, you will also gain much happiness and friendships, and be respected as a Rotarian.

Being a club President is a once in a lifetime opportunity for most Rotarians to lead their respective clubs and they will find it a most intensive and exciting year. I urge all members of the Rotary Club of Kuching Central to give full support to the new President and Board so together you will enjoy the full spirit of Rotary experience.

I take this opportunity to congratulate you and your Board of Directors and wishing a fruitful and successful year as you embark on another exciting year of Service above Self.

Warmest regards

Chris Chen

From
DR. WU DAR CHING
Governor 2006-2007
Rotary International District 3310

*T*he installation of President Leslie Phuan and his team of club officers is an important annual event in the Rotary calendar. It signifies not only a change of the club's leadership but also a renewal of the club's purpose and activities.

After a year of planning, activities, and hard work, the outgoing leadership team can look back on the past year with satisfaction and joy. It is a year of dreams fulfilled and projects accomplished. I commend the outgoing 2006-07 President Chai Ko Jee and his team for a job well done.

The 2007-08 leadership team has been waiting patiently and looks forward to the coming year with anticipation, hope, and eagerness. These club leaders will soon put into action plans hatched over the year and, in due time, realize desired results.

Club members are inspired and motivated by each change of leadership because this will bring new perspectives and experiences. Everyone will continue to participate in club activities, enjoy family of Rotary fellowship, and fulfill the Object of Rotary, which I have crystallized into the 4 Cs: career networking, character enhancement, community service, and conflict resolution.

Rotarians must and will continue to Lead the Way and show that Rotary Shares in our effort to make the world a better place. I congratulate and wish incoming President Leslie and all the club members another successful, satisfying, and joyful Rotary year.

Yours in Rotary,

Dr. Wu Dar Ching

President 2007-2008

*I*t is a privilege and honor for me to be elected as the 22nd President of the Rotary Club of Kuching Central – a club whose members are dynamic, enthusiastic, warm and always willing to lend a helping hand.

I have humbly accepted these responsibilities and pledged to serve the new Rotary year with my utmost best and capability to lead the newly elected board of directors and the club to greater heights of achievements.

In consistent with the new Rotary theme – ROTARY SHARES – the new Rotary year will be full of sharing where we will share kindness, time, resources and humanity through the various avenues of services under the Rotary program.

One particular major project that is already under the plan during the coming Rotary year is the free eye cataract operations which the club will be undertaking to help the rural dwellers.

I therefore invite not only members of the club but as well as members of the community and the government to help support this major project in order that we can help to create a more conducive, happy and caring society.

I wish to thank outgoing President Chai Ko Jee and his board of directors for having built a strong foundation for the club and ensuring a smooth transition for the new club officers to lead.

On behalf of the Rotary Club of Kuching Central, I wish to express our deepest and heartfelt gratitude to YB Dato Sri Wong Soon Koh for accepting our invitation to grace this meaningful ceremony.

I also would like to take this opportunity to thank our guests, friends and supporters of the Rotary Club of Kuching Central for making it possible for us to carry out our community projects.

Yours in Rotary,

*I*t was just like yesterday when I was installed as the 21st President of the Rotary Club of Kuching Central.

Time flies and a year has passed. Voon Cheng and I have indeed been very privileged and honoured to be able to work closely together with the Rotarians, Rotarian spouses and families in our Rotary projects.

Many projects have been successfully implemented and accomplished as planned. These achievements are made possible due to the dedicated commitments and unselfish contributions of our Rotarians and their spouses.

Our club has also been awarded the Rotary International Presidential Citation. With this, I would like to record my sincere thanks to my Board of Directors and all the Rotarians and their spouses for their continuous unfailing Rotary spirit and a job well done!

On behalf of the organizing committee of the 22nd Installation of the Rotary Club of Kuching Central, I would like to express my heartfelt and sincere appreciation to our very supportive Guest of Honour, YB Dato Sri Wong Soon Koh for gracing this installation despite his busy schedules.

Last but not least, I would like to thank my dearest wife, Voon Cheng for being so supportive and understanding during my term of office as President of the Rotary Club of Kuching Central.

Finally, I would like to wish Incoming President, Rotarian Leslie Phuan and his new Board of Directors, a challenging, exciting, enjoyable and successful year ahead.

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First:

The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service.

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

Second:

Third:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life.

Fourth:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARY HISTORY

A Brief History

The world's first service club, the Rotary Club of Chicago, Illinois, USA, was formed on 23 February 1905 by Paul P. Harris, an attorney who wished to recapture in a professional club the same friendly spirit he had felt in the small towns of his youth. The name "Rotary" derived from the early practice of rotating meetings among members' offices.

Rotary's popularity spread throughout the United States in the decade that followed; clubs were chartered from San Francisco to New York. By 1921, Rotary clubs had been formed on six continents, and the organization adopted the name Rotary International a year later.

As Rotary grew, its mission expanded beyond serving the professional and social interests of club members. Rotarians began pooling their resources and contributing their talents to help serve communities in need. The organization's dedication to this ideal is best expressed in its principal motto: Service Above Self. Rotary also later embraced a code of ethics, called The 4-Way Test, that has been translated into hundreds of languages.

During and after World War II, Rotarians became increasingly involved in promoting international understanding. A Rotary conference held in London in 1942 planted the seeds for the development of the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), and numerous Rotarians have served as consultants to the United Nations.

An endowment fund, set up by Rotarians in 1917 "for doing good in the world," became a not-for-profit corporation known as The Rotary Foundation in 1928. Upon the death of Paul Harris in 1947, an outpouring of Rotarian donations made in his honor, totaling US$2 million, launched the Foundation's first program — graduate fellowships, now called Ambassadorial Scholarships. Today, contributions to The Rotary Foundation total more than US$80 million annually and support a wide range of humanitarian grants and educational programs that enable Rotarians to bring hope and promote international understanding throughout the world.

In 1985, Rotary made a historic commitment to immunize all of the world's children against polio. Working in partnership with nongovernmental organizations and national governments through its PolioPlus program, Rotary is the largest private-sector contributor to the global polio eradication campaign. Rotarians have mobilized hundreds of thousands of PolioPlus volunteers and have immunized more than one billion children worldwide. By the 2005 target date for certification of a polio-free world, Rotary will have contributed half a billion dollars to the cause.

As it approached the dawn of the 21st century, Rotary worked to meet the changing needs of society, expanding its service effort to address such pressing issues as environmental degradation, illiteracy, world hunger, and children at risk. The organization admitted women for the first time (worldwide) in 1989 and claims more than 90,000 women in its ranks today. Following the collapse of the Berlin Wall and the dissolution of the Soviet Union, Rotary clubs were formed or re-established throughout Central and Eastern Europe. Today, 1.2 million Rotarians belong to some 31,000 Rotary clubs in more than 166 countries.
